EIGHTY THREE years ago this little church in Rawsonville was dedicated. It was still in use during the bomber plant boom. Eventually its pews were moved out and the structure was converted to storage of apples. Now it is to be torn down for the expansion of Rawsonville Rd.

Dawsonville

2012